

2005 Texas State 4-H Goat Judging Contest
Junior Test

Contestant Number: _____

Section 1 - All questions are worth 2 points each. Do not forget questions on the back of the page!

Answer the following questions with a “T” for true and an “F” for false

1. _____ An Oberhasli’s ears should be red inside and black on the outside.
2. _____ Breed standards for the American Boer Goat follow the standards that were developed in South Africa.
3. _____ When judging meat goats, “type” means how much they weigh.
4. _____ A good Nigerian Dwarf should look like a very small French Alpine.
5. _____ The LaMancha dairy goat was developed in America.

Fill in the blank on the following questions

6. On the Senior Dairy Goat Scorecard, the Mammary System is worth _____ points.
7. Angularity and General Openness is a part of which area of the scorecard? _____
8. The proper color pattern for a Saanen is : _____
9. Muscle in a meat goat is best felt in the _____, loin, shoulder and neck
10. In the Evaluation of Defects, a goat that is blind has a _____ defect.

Pick the correct answer for the following questions

11. _____ Which of these is not an important part of judging market goats
A. Structure B. Size and Growth
C. Color pattern D. Condition
12. _____ A French Alpine that is brown with black legs and face has the following color pattern
A. Sundgau B. Cou Clair
C. Chamoisee D. Cou Blanc

* REMEMBER TO FINISH THE BACK PAGE****

